

EVIDENCE

Step Three: Evidence Log

Your relatives might be able to show you some records to help you with your research, such as old photographs, family recipe books, school reports, certificates, diaries or letters. Ask if you can note the details or take a copy.

CHECKLIST

- |                |                          |                |                          |
|----------------|--------------------------|----------------|--------------------------|
| Certificates   | <input type="checkbox"/> | Diaries        | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| Photographs    | <input type="checkbox"/> | Letters        | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| Recipe books   | <input type="checkbox"/> | Postcards      | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| School reports | <input type="checkbox"/> | Other Evidence | <input type="checkbox"/> |

Make a note of your evidence. Who is it evidence of? When?
How does it connect to you?

---

---

---

---

You might be able to check for facts about your ancestors in national records online. We have help with how to do this on our blog and website.